DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1 and 10-15 are pending in this application.

Request for Continued Examination (RCE)

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on September 8, 2006 has been entered.

Action Summary

2. Examiner acknowledges the cancellation of 2-9. Therefore, any and all rejections and/or objections directed towards them are hereby withdrawn.
3. The objection to the specification for containing an embedded hyperlink is hereby withdrawn as applicant has removed the hyperlink.
4. The rejection of claims 1 and 10-15 under 35 USC 103(a) over Stiefel et al. or Gaull in view of Mrklas et al. is hereby withdrawn as applicant has amended the claim to exclude an anti-acne composition.

Claim Objections

5. Claims 10 and 11 are objected to because of the following informalities: Claim 10 depends upon a cancelled claim, which is improper. Claim 11 is objected too for depending upon claim 10. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1 and 10-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Mrklas et al. (US 5,304,112).

Examiner understands the invention to be a method of reducing the number and severity of acne lesions by administering a sensory regimen, wherein the regimen comprises at least two stimuli selected from the group consisting of auditory stimuli, visual stimuli, tactile stimuli, gustatory stimuli and olfactory stimuli.

Mrklas et al. discloses a system for reducing stress. The system provides relaxing visual, auditory, tactile, environmental and other effects to reduce the stress level in a human (abstract). Column 5, lines 27-35 describes the set-up for the system comprising a chair, laser projection system and speakers. Column 6, line 22 through column 10, line 11 describes in detail how the system reduces stress i.e. for environmental stimulus the user can control the background lighting, and release fragrances into the air. The user can also control a sound effects module to play music through a tape playback system. It is the position of the examiner that the limitations of claim 1 ((1), (2) and (3)) would be inherent in the system of Mrklas et al. The reasoning is that since the claimed invention is directed towards the same type of system then the end results of the system would also be the same.

Conclusion

7. Claims 1 and 10-15 are rejected.
